¹ Also available in bridge programs.

² Offered in quantitative and qualitative methodologies.

³ While the courses in the EdS program are doctoral level programs, the EdS degree is not a terminal degree. GCU does not confer the title of "Doctor" to EdS graduates.

⁴ These degrees are designed to provide adequate subject content coupled with teacher preparation from the College of Education. (1) Initial Program—Leads to Initial Teacher Licensure (2) Initial Program—Does Not Lead to Teacher Licensure. This program does not include a student teaching component, and does not therefore lead to licensure, but may lead to career advancement for those already licensed as teachers. (3) Advanced Program for Continuing Professional Education (4) Program leads to Initial Licensure. Applicants to the program are responsible for contacting their state department of education for licensure requirements and program approval. Arizona or home state fingerprint/background clearance is required for all practicum/field experiences and student teaching.

⁵ This degree, offered by the College of Education, is a regionally accredited program approved by the State of Arizona. It aligns with the Professional Standards for Educational Leaders (PSEL, 2015) led by the National Policy Board for Educational Administration (NPBEA, 2018).

⁶ Nevada program only.

⁷ Visit the "State Disclosures" section on the interested program page at gcu.edu for details on state restrictions.

⁸ Program available in Arizona, California, Colorado, Florida, Georgia, Idaho, Illinois, Nevada, New Mexico, North Carolina and Texas.
